But it can have only the colors on top in the design (but please make sure they are school, education, colors but also not too bright).

- Study Wins – Students share achievements, big or small (e.g., "I finally passed my stats exam!")
- Tough Days – Encouraging messages for students struggling with burnout.
- Exam Grind – Tips & motivational words for getting through exam season.
- Daily Reminders – Simple uplifting quotes or mindset shifts (e.g., "Progress > Perfection")

Interactions & Personalization

- Allow students to react (, ,) to messages.
- Give them an option to pin their favorite sticky notes.
- Maybe even allow some minor customization: like choosing fonts or handwriting styles for a personal touch.

User Experience Enhancements

- Messages fade in and appear like a real wall of sticky notes.
- Click a sticky note to "flip" it and see a longer message or comment section.

Phase 1: Core Freemium Features (First Launch)

1. Q&A Section: Students can ask and answer academic questions, earning volunteer hours for engagement. (but need to change name instead of "Q&A")
2. Basic Chat & Study Rooms: Allows students to connect for group study sessions.
3. Library (Limited Free Access): Free access to some textbooks, study notes, and educational videos. (students can sell PHYSICAL BOOKS AND NOTES and we take %15 off of commission in USD dollars and in any language)
4. Profile & Community Tracking : Users can track their study progress and volunteer hours.
5. Homepage (FYP) – Featuring scholarship news, internship listings, and Motivation Wall (Sticky Notes Feature); Students post motivational messages for peers.

Profile & Activity Feed

- Add a "Status Update" feature where students post what they're studying, working on, or learning.
- This can be on their profile and show up in a feed for their friends.
- Example: "📖 Studying for Econ midterm! Anyone else?"

Social Lounge (Casual Section)

- A non-academic chat where students discuss hobbies, career goals, or fun topics, fun facts to stay engaged or as a way for each to learn something new.
